

Newark, N.J.

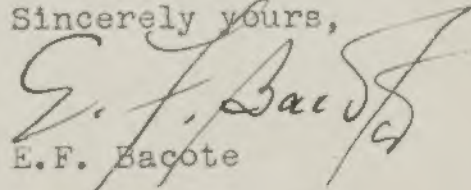

78 Barclay St.

May 12, 1941

My dear Mrs. Manley:

I wish to acknowledge, with many thanks, the pass for the baseball season, too, I thank you kindly for the tickets to the opening game. I must congratulate you for the fine crowd which you drew to the opening game. Here is hoping that the Sunday attendance was a forerunner of the day in the near future when we shall see the S.R.O. sign in the box-office for people will be clamoring to see the pennant-winning Newark Eagles. I am

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'E. F. Bacote', with a stylized flourish extending from the end of the name.

E. F. Bacote